

OPERATION
LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR
Saturday,
February 18, 2012

This is the 5th O.L.Y.N event. With many exciting new projects, there is absolutely a project for EVERYONE. This is an opportunity to be the hands and feet of Jesus and get out of the pews and into the streets to meet people at their point of need. We are called to love our neighbors, and this is the super bowl of service. Please review each team and sign up for your 1st and 2nd choice. Many teams will fill up quickly, so sign up today!

Everyday Café - CCMI

Leader: Lauramae Ball

The Every Day Café at CCMI in Fort Myers serves thousands of people a month thru home delivered meals and onsite lunches. Help is needed from 8:30 am to 1:30 pm with food preparation and meal services, and dish washing. Limited to first 9 people to sign up.

Cooking for the Masses

Leader: Mirelle Peak

Saint Francis Xavier feeds 1,000 neighbors following the Festival of Lights parade for a very nominal donation. A full spaghetti dinner with salad, bread-stick and a dessert. Assistance is needed in setting up for the event at the church. Rolling silverware, chopping salad fixings, cutting desserts and plating them, setting up chairs, organizing drink stations and much more.

Blood Pressure Clinic

Leader: Gini McCain

This a great project for our health care professionals current and retired. We will work at the Cape Coral Farmer's Market with students from Rasmussen College who are training to be nurses. Help will be needed to prep blood pressure handout cards, take BPs, answer questions, and talk about ways to lower blood pressure. Hospitality folks also welcome.

Hymn Sing-a-Long

Leader: Bill Peak

Bill is an accomplished accordion player and will play while team members help the residents with a sing along. Help is needed to prepare the music and lyrics in advance of the sing a long and to attend the program at a local retirement facility TBA.

Coupons for the Military

Leader: Debbie Ferbrache

Lee Memorial Hospital collects coupons to send to active and retired military. Serve alongside residents of Gulf Coast Village in this multi-generational project by clipping coupons together. Please drop off unused coupons in the collection bins in the narthex.

Winkler Court - Crafts

Leader: Gail "Dixie" Dix

Winkler Court is an assisted living facility in Fort Myers. Spend time with this loving group of residents to do a special craft. Help will be needed to assemble supplies and decide on a fun and inexpensive project to create. Volunteers will help the residents make the keepsake project.

Habitat for Humanity

Leaders: Bill and Barb Barbre

Help build a home for a family in need or other chore work. This is a heavy labor type activity, nailing, hammering, painting, lifting, and bending.

Animal Refuge Center

Leaders: June Garlin and Brittany Garlin

Volunteers will work socializing and bathing animals, cleaning kennels, landscaping, and other activities that are required to help run a NO KILL Animal Shelter Near the Civic Center in N. Fort Myers.

Rauschenberg Center for Living

Leader: Dan Hardin

This non-profit organization meets the needs of local HIV/AIDS patients. This team will help to organize a food pantry and do some cleaning and organization at its Fort Myers facility.

Special POPS – van washing

Leader: Lynette Zwirlein

This non-profit group caters to a special population of Cape Coral citizens, and its fleet of vans needs some TLC. Volunteer to wash/clean/detail its fleet of seven vans and interact with Special Pops program participants.

Special POPS – yard work

Leader: Lynette Zwirlein

Volunteers and Special Pops program participants will work side-by-side with this team to do some light yard work and cleaning projects around the Cape Coral facility. All ages and skill levels appropriate, this is an ideal project for families with children.

OPERATION LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR – FEBRUARY 18, 2012

Prayer Team

Leader: Debbie Mann

Perfect team open to EVERYONE! Spend time on February 18th praying from one of many different locations, including your own home. We will pray for our community and that God will use each of our CCFUMC volunteers to be a blessing.

Grace Community - Hospitality

Leader: Rena McCarty

Every 3rd Saturday Grace Community Center opens its doors to meet the various needs of Lee County neighbors, including medical screenings, clothes, food, pet food, and even haircuts. CCFUMC will offer hospitality to hundreds of folks who come out for this event by serving cookies and drinks. Help will be needed to prepare cookies and to serve.

GCC – Children's Activity

Leader: Karen Cooley

Every 3rd Saturday Grace Community Center opens its doors to meet the various needs of the community. Volunteers will work a "booth" to do crafts with the children coming for assistance. A fun diversion for the children while the parents are able to obtain the needed assistance.

GCC- Early Morning Coffee

Leader: Marcey Beavers

Hundreds of needy neighbors begin lining up for Grace Community Center's 3rd Saturday event as early as 5:30 and 6:00am. This team will offer early morning hospitality to the families waiting in a long line on a winter morning by offering coffee and smiles before the doors open at 8:30am. Volunteers will serve coffee beginning at 7:30am.

Ronald McDonald House

Leader: Eileyn Sobeck-Bador

Come help cook a meal for the 18-25 people who stay temporarily at the Ronald McDonald House while a loved one is hospitalized. The team will begin cooking dinner at 4pm and have dinner ready to serve 5:30-6:00 PM. Shoppers for the food items, meal planners and cooks are needed on this team.

Cookie Baking at RMH

Leader: Caroline Bevington

Ronald McDonald House utilizes volunteers to bake fresh cookies each afternoon. The first couple of families to sign up can go in during the early afternoon and bake cookies of their choice to welcome guests.

New Mission Systems Intn'l

Leaders: Dave and Pam Woodruff

This international missionary organization has a Ft Myers office that is in need of some light repair work and landscaping. Join this team to clean and work around the facility, helping those who help so many around the globe.

Sterling House Bingo

Leader: Christina Consolino

Join this group at a Cape Coral assisted living facility to play bingo and spend time with residents who may not otherwise have any visitors. Great family friendly event.

Planning Ahead

Leader: Kendra Therrell

There will be opportunities to help support teams in advance of Saturday, February 18th. Projects, ranging from baking 100 dozen cookies for Grace Community Center, to assembling craft projects. There are many activities needing advance help, just let us know how you're able to serve.

Juniper Village

Leader: Sara Westgate

Come spend time with residents at this Cape Coral assisted living facility and enjoy a variety of fun games and fellowship.

Homebound Visit and a Meal

Leaders: Sue Britton and Betty Band

Go in small teams/families to visit local homebound neighbors. In addition to a short visit, you'll prepare a light meal to take to the shut-in and share together. Nothing like breaking bread together!

HOPE Bag Delivery - CCMI

Leader: Eddie Johnson

CCMI serves families throughout Lee County in a variety of ways. HOPE bag delivery is a unique ministry. You'll meet at CCMI and assemble brown bags of groceries (provided by CCMI), then go out in teams to deliver the bags to pre-determined residences in Lee County. This ministry has been inactive for a little while. There may be as many as 60 stops to make on Saturday.
